William Brown, an attorney on Ms. Lawton's staff, has been in contact with me through Mr. Sturgis' office on the topic of the history of that technique. I have given him access to the materials used during the Grey-Felt-Miller discovery proceedings, specifically the collection which shows notice to DOJ and The White House of current or past use of the technique. The collection includes entries proposed or executed on behalf of the National Security Agency (NSA). (U)

Memorandum to Mr. E. J. O'Malley from J. L. Tierney
Re: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE (SSCI)

Ms. Lawton's office proposes to answer the Senator's inquiry in writing. Attached is a copy of Part 2 of her draft response which covers the history of the FBI's use of warrantless searches before 1966. The opening portion of Ms. Lawton's letter is a recitation of the law on the topic and is not relevant to the purpose of this memo. The second part of the memorandum contains a summary of the FBI documents. Part 2 of the memorandum, and a redacted set of FBI documents are attached, as is a second set of the documents without redactions. The redacted versions of the documents will be furnished to the committees, but will be returned to OIPR within 30 days. Only one copy of the OIPR memorandum will be furnished to each committee and this copy will be maintained by the Chief Counsel of each committee. (U)

(S) Mr. Brown has obtained the concurrence of NSA General Counsel and will check with State. Mr. Brown, [redacted] on his own initiative, has made further redactions to protect FBI interests as well. I am very familiar with these documents and I agree that redaction sufficiently protect our interests. ~~(S)~~ b1

Ms. Lawton anticipates furnishing the requested memorandum of law with a summary of enclosures and the redacted enclosures by 11/18/83. (U)

The enclosures are attached to the original and additional file copy (62-118045) only. (U)
